

It's been 8 years since I've come to Tokyo, 6 years since I started as a mangaka, yet when it comes to sales, I'm still a beginner...

To show how humiliated at myself I am, I always draw myself with a beard... I want to be a stoic artist! Heck! I will become a stoic artist!

久保三郎の No Life, No Life.

No Complaints, No Life.

While drawing on the day before I was going to move,
My editor came to visit and brought along with him...
Nonaka Eiji-sensei!!

He came on a simple whim, but Nonaka-sensei ended up helping me draw out a character for a frame, and even walked 15 minutes to the closest convenience store to use the copier...

I'd like to say I'm sorry!
And that you were a great help!

Juju's Notes:

P 7 "Sebastian" is the correct name for the character we've previously been addressing as "Obobashi"

P 9 Osamu Hirotsugu (廣嗣 博司) born December 9, 1953 was awarded three Triple Crown bating awards (1982, 1985, and 1986) and was professionally active from 1976 to 1998

P 9 Kakufu Masayuki (勝祐 雅之) born May 9, 1955 was professionally active from 1973 to 1988 and played for the Hanshin Tigers his entire career. The fourth person to be nicknamed "Mr. Tigers" by fans since the term's first usage in 1940

P 16 "Toku" (トク) the nickname is a homonym with the Japanese word for clothing or uniform "Toku" (服) and I think that's the frame that Honoka Iijima drew (see note below)

P 22: Honoka Iijima (飯中 穂香) born February 21, 1965, is a male mangaka who debuted in 1994. His most commonly known work is probably "Cromartie High School" which won the 2002 Kodansha Manga Award for Shounen

A name change... a pun... and lots of history... hope that was more interesting to read than it was to type

久保三郎の No Life

No Complaints, No Life.

I've moved. I now live only 15 minutes away from Kodansha. After moving in, I found something in the back of the closet...

A metal object with a note attached to it.

It just so happen I listen to Ijuin Hikaru's radio show while I worked these days, so I sent in a fax to ask him about this...

Apparently it really was something he forgot.

Juju's Notes:

P 23: An easy way to get a sense of the value of the Japanese Yen is to just divide by 100 to get the approximate value in Canadian Dollars (what I use)... interestingly, since the U.S. Dollar has dropped to about the same value as the Canadian dollar these days (July '08), Americans too can drop 2 zeros to get the approximate value in their native currency. So ¥20,000 is about $200.

P 30: "Hostess Club" is a night time establishment where "club girls" typically drink and flirt with customers, who are typically salarymen. Club Virgin Heart owned by Hsao is one of such establishments, and Sazoko is a club girl employed there.

P 42: "Onii chan" literally "big brother", is often used by younger children to address adults, cats. It's like the English usage of "Mister" to address male strangers.

P 44: "Kodansha" is the largest Japanese publisher. They also publish Weekly Shounen Magazine, where I.I.T. Byooshu was serialized, along with other magazines such as Afternoon (seinen) and Nakayoshi (shojo).

P 46: "Ijumi Hikaru" (伊集院 光) born November 7, 1967, is a male Japanese comedian, radio personality and critic. He's been active on the radio since 1988 and currently airs on TBS Radio.

不器用者の No Life, No Life.

No Complaints, No Life.

Continuing from last time about my move.
Two days after the radio message, during a drafting day, Ijuin Hikaru came to see me in person!! (Along with Watanabe-kun and Yama-chan from the Untouchables)

WHOOOOOAAA

We talked about the land lord and the neighborhood for about 30 minutes. I've been listening to his radio shows since high school, and I've even sent in faxes 2 or 3 times (okay... it's not that many). I've always been a fan of Ijuin-san and I feel like that I've used up all my good luck being able to meet with him like this. For the rest of my life...
Something like this will never happen again!!

Thank you for making my dream come true...

Juju's Notes:

P 50: "Koshien" (甲子園) is the baseball stadium where the Japanese National High School Baseball Tournament and Championship hold its final games. Out of 4000 high school teams, only the top 55 make it to the Championship and only 32 are invited to the Tournament.

P 51: "Itadakimasu" (いただきます) is a Japanese expression of gratitude before eating a meal.

P 51: "Preparatory School", or "yobikou" (予備校) in Japanese is what we've been previously calling " cram school". I felt that this new term would be more fitting, since it is actually class where you prepare for university entrance examinations (either for the first time, or retrying after failing).

P 53: "Senpai" (先輩), can be used quite extensively for anyone with "greater life experience" from older school graduates to workplace seniors.

P 54: "Watanabe-kun" is probably "Watanabe Masashi" (渡辺 昌史) born 1975, who is the writer and coordinator of one of Ijau Hikaru's radio shows...who also seems to be a personal long-time friend of Ijau Hikaru.

P 64: "Untouchables" refers to a Japanese comedy duo, and "Yama-chan" is the nickname of Yamazaki Hiroon (山崎 弘雄), a male comedian born January 14, 1976. Yamazaki was a regular guest on one of Ijau's radio shows.

不満足の No Complaint, No Life.

No Complaints, No Life.

One day,

There was a child selling instant noodle packs in the neighbourhood. My editor went to buy some, I went to buy some, and my assistant Mami went to buy some.

Before we knew it,

We had bought a total 12 packs of ramen for only 400 yen. The next day, the same child was selling a crushed pack of rice crackers for 100 yen.

Of course I bought that too.

Juju's Notes:

P.70 "The Year of the Dog" refers to the Chinese Zodiac, but let's put those details aside. More importantly knowing that this manga was first published in 2002, the possible Dog years would be 1994, 1982, or 1970. So, the "Mad Dogs" are most likely born in 1982, which would make the five of them about 20 in age ("about", since the Chinese Zodiac uses the Lunar Calendar which doesn't match exactly with the Gregorian Solar Calendar.)

P.71 "Kusobaba" (くそばば, literally "shitty old hag" is a less than complimenting way to address a woman.

P.80 "New York Fashion Week" (now officially called the "Mercedes-Benz Fashion Week" is a semi-annual fashion week held in New York, and is one of the fashion industry's four largest events.

DON'T HAVE MUCH TO SHOW

HOW ABOUT THIS

ONE HERE?

YES

THEN

IF YOU
MAKE ME LAUGH, I'LL GIVE

WHY?
REALLY?
I'LL DO IT! JUST

I SHALL FINISH THIS IN UNDER A MINUTE.

NO WAY! THAT FAST?!

50 Seconds Later

SINCE SHE KEPT A CIPHERED EYEBOX WITH THE RUBIK'S CUBE...

HEY DORA BE CAREFUL THAT AREA!

DO IT AGAIN!

HERE IT'S DONE

IF I CONTINUE, I RISK BEING MY CIPHER AS A HOST.

MY DOCTOR ADVISES WE NOT TO OVER DO IT.

AND I CAN'T BELIEVE I WAS ACTUALLY AWAYED BY THAT ACT...

あははははは
IT TAKES BRICKS YOU'VE GOT TO BE COORDINATE!

はははは

THEN AS PROMISED, A CHECK FOR 10 MILLION YEN

IT'S JUST SOME EASY MONEY BY PUTTING A BOX IN THERE, SO DON'T WORRY!

あああ

DON'T WORRY AND JUST TAKE IT...

あああ

FOR REAL?

あああ

TAKE IT!

I REFUSE TO FEED MYSELF WITH EVEN A

AND THIS, I'M NOT

YOU AGAIN, RELYING ON YOUR

TO GET THROUGH YOUR LIFE.

AND BEHOLD,

AFTER THAT, I BECAME ASHAMED OF MYSELF, SO I FOUND A JOB
THAT I REALLY
WANTED TO DO,
MOVED AWAY FROM MY PARENTS' AND STARTED TO LIVE INDEPENDENTLY.

UME-CHAN WAS THE ONE WHO TAUGHT ME SOMETHING THAT NO ONE HAD EVER TOLD ME...

I JUST WANT TO CHERISH
THE ONE WHO'S ALWAYS SUPPORTED ME UNTIL NOW...

SO WOULD YOU ALSO WANT TO START YOUR OWN BUSINESS?

WE HAVE QUESTS TO INTER-VIEW...

WOULD YOU LIKE TO INTERVIEW US?

YOU CAN GET IT
THE NEXT TIME SHE COMES.

It's the first time
I've seen a celebrity

AH!

No Complaints, No Life.

My new home is larger than the one I had before, but as before, I still don't have a personal room. During weeks that I work, half the time I sleep on the floor. My down feather futon keeps me warm.

I use the three cushions my assistants use during their work as the mattress.

When my assistants aren't here, I sleep in their room or under the kotatsu.

P 88 "with" is a Japanese fashion magazine published by Kodansha aimed for women in their 20s and 30s.

P 88 "CX" refers to Fuji Television Network, Inc. or simply Fuji TV, and is derived from the Japanese television station's call sign "JOXX-TV".

P 88 Ume (うめ) signs his message with a plum blossom . . . since "Ume" (梅) is Japanese for plum.

P 94 "Yoshimoto" refers to Yoshimoto Kogyo Co., Ltd. and is a major Japanese talent agency. "Shimada Shinosuke" (born March 24, 1956), is one their comedians who had been active since 1975.

P 94 For those of you who don't recall, then 2002 FIFA World Cup was hosted by Japan and Korea, and the Japanese team was knocked out by Turkey in the Round of 16. The final game took place on June 30 in Yokohama, with Brazil winning against Germany 2 to 0.

P 104 "Kotatsu" is a low table covered by a futon with a heat source underneath it, and a "futon" is a heavy blanket.

No Complainers, No Life.

When I returned home after taking out the trash at midnight, I forgot to bring my keys and cellphone, and was locked out of my home by the autolock system. While I had brought my wallet, I felt pretty mad and frustrated, and ended up walking for a whole hour and arrived at Shinjuku, where I enjoyed myself at a karaoke and a manga cafe.

I felt that I could do anything I wanted.

I felt like I was really an adult!

Oh yeah!

When I returned home, I found that my friends were just about to call the police to search for me...

P 109 "Don Quijota" (ドン・キホーテ), full name "Don Quijote Co., Ltd." abbreviated "Donki" is a Japanese discount chain store with over a hundred store locations across Japan that was founded in 1980 ... just think of it like Walmart. Oh yes, "Sancho" is just what Haku named his bike.

P 112 "Shinjuku Green" literally "Shinjuku Imperial Gardens" ... is a large Ministry-managed park that was once the private residence of an Imperial family (thus the fence), covering 58.3 hectares with a circumference of 3.5 kilometers. The tall pentached building (also on P 117 and 121) would be NTT DoComo Yoyogi Building, currently the third tallest structure in Tokyo.

If you're bored ... you can actually find the "Shinjuku Green" on Google Maps (you might want to centre your view around Tokyo, Japan first before typing the name), and as of July 2009, the sat. slice image there was taken during spring, so the cherry blossoms are in full bloom, and on the south-east edge of the property, you can see hundreds of "hanami" (flower-viewing) picnic parties going on ... very cool ... and slightly creepy ...

Move slightly west from the park and you can find the NTT DoComo building ... or just type it, although the angle's not ideal to see how tall it really is ... (so that's when you check "Photo" to get shots of the locale)

EVEN THEY'VE

ALL THAT I CAN DO, IS TO SUPPORT OTHERS...

WHAT CAN SOMEONE LIKE YOU POSSIBLY DO?

I'LL TRY AND SORT THINGS OUT IF THEIR PARENTS DECIDE TO STEP IN...

WHEN IT'S NOT DO I DO
THIS TO MYSELF?

SHIT

LEAVE IT ALONE!
IT'S JUST A FIGHT BETWEEN KIDS!

不満足の No Complaint, No Life.

No Complaints, No Life.

Thank you for all your letters.

My parents and friends have all been worrying but...

I'm not ending this series just yet!!

Thanks to everyone's support, surveys have shown that this series is now the top "I can't find this book in any bookstore anymore" book! And I'd like to thank my mom for purchasing a ton of my books, it looks like I'll be able to live off this for another while.

I love emptying my mind and so I rant everyday for my mental health. Oh yes! I'm going to hold off on doing any Character Profile pages until I get further along in this work, so please look forward to them when the time comes (pls I wouldn't want it if the information I put now doesn't match up with what I come up with later...).

Jujū's Notes:

P 125 "Mii-san" literally means "big brother", but in this context, it's used not because of blood relations, but more as a respectful way to address a higher ranking member of an organization...

P 128 The Park Hyatt Tokyo Hotel actually exists and borders the north-east side of the Shinguku Imperial Gardens – the wonder of Google Maps

More Google Map boredom... the small lake that this chapter takes place is actually in the west corner of Shinguku Gyoen, if you zoom in to the maximum level, you can actually see the bendy bridge Soumei stands on (the detail is amazing – both the map and the author's work) on the north edge of the lake

P 158 "KOMA Theater" is a theater that was built in 1958 in Shinjuku. With a capacity of 2088 people, it is often host to theatrical plays, musicals, and concerts.

P 164 Masayoshi's a singer, no clue what Mt. Ceru means, XXX censored names are too vague for me to determine. Bihaku is a skin whitening product. Chinese Rina is female singer/actress, NMR is a game (Metal Max Returns) - see Google for more information. p
